Our Product Disclosure Statement

This policy document is also a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). A PDS is a document required by the Corporations Act and contains information designed to help you decide whether to buy the policy.

About the available covers

You can apply to buy:

- Buildings Cover (see Part A); and/or
- Contents Cover (see Part A);
- Personal Effects Cover (see Part B); and/or
- Domestic Workers Compensation Cover (see Part C).

Understanding your policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand this policy's significant features, benefits and risks you need to carefully read:

- about each of the available types of cover and benefits in the relevant sections, including any endorsements (remember certain words have special meanings – see the “Introduction” section);
- “When we will not pay a claim” section (this restricts the cover and benefits);
- “Conditions of cover” and “Making a claim” sections (these set out certain obligations that you and we have. If you do not meet them we may be able to refuse to pay a claim); and
- “Other information” section (this contains important information on your duty of disclosure, our privacy policy and our dispute resolution process).

When you apply for the policy by completing our application we agree with you on things such as: the period of insurance; your premium; what property you want to cover; the limits you want for certain covers (if optional); excesses that will apply to you or others and whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement). These details are recorded in the schedule we issue to you.

The base premium we charge varies according to your risk profile (e.g. where you live, the type of property being insured, amount of cover required, other persons insured and relevant claims history etc). In some cases discounts may apply if you meet certain criteria we set. You will also have to pay any compulsory government charges (e.g. Stamp Duty and GST) and Fire Services Levy (where applicable) plus any additional charges we tell you of. We tell you the total amount payable when you apply and if you effect cover, the amounts due will be confirmed in your schedule.

If you pay your premium by instalments refer to the “Conditions of cover” section for important details on your and our rights and obligations. Note that an instalment premium outstanding for 14 days may result in our refusal to pay a claim.

This policy sets out the cover we are able to provide you with. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for you and will cover your potential loss. If they are not, you may be underinsured and have to bear part of any loss you are not covered for yourself. To avoid this, people seek to set the sum insured for the relevant property being insured at its estimated replacement value.

You should also read the GST Notice to understand how GST is applied to a claim.

If you have any queries, want further information about the policy or want to confirm a transaction, please use the contact details on the back cover.

Cooling off period and cancellation rights

Even after you have decided, you have a cooling off period and cancellation rights (see conditions of cover section for details).

Preparation Date 1/8/2003.

Updating the PDS

Information in the PDS may need to be updated from time to time. You can obtain a paper copy of any updated information without charge by calling us on the contact details provided on the back cover of this policy document. If the update is to correct a misleading or deceptive statement or an omission, that is materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person deciding whether to acquire this policy, we will provide you with a new PDS or a supplementary PDS.

Introduction

Welcome and thank you for choosing Allianz, one of Australia's largest general insurers. We utilise years of local expertise, combined with global experience to offer a range of highly featured products and services to our customers. As members of the worldwide Allianz Group, we are committed to the continuous improvement of our products and services and strive to achieve this through knowledge transfer within the Group; dedicated technical research units; sharing globally new product developments and a wide range of risk management services. We also aspire to insurance industry best practice procedures in all aspects of our business, so you can relax knowing the power is on your side.

What the policy consists of Your policy consists of:

- this printed Allianz Vital Home Insurance Policy Document which sets out details of your cover and its limitations, and
- a schedule, approved by us, which sets out who is insured, the cover(s) selected, the period of insurance, the limits of liability, excesses and other important information. This is referred to as the current schedule in this policy document.

You should carefully read and retain your insurance policy document and current schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us. Any new or replacement schedule we may send you, detailing changes to your insurance or the period of insurance, will become the current schedule, which you should carefully read and retain.

Our agreement with you

We will insure you for:

- loss or damage caused by one or more of the insured events, and
 - the other benefits,
- as set out in this policy occurring during the period of insurance.

This cover will be given on the basis:

- that you have paid or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover you selected when you applied for cover and which the current schedule indicates is in force,
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave after having been advised of your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing. If you failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of avoiding your policy from the effective date stated in the current schedule.

For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of nondisclosure, under the heading “Your Duty of Disclosure”, on pages 49 to 50.

“additional costs” mean those rental and other related costs which you have to incur at the location of your temporary accommodation which are in addition to the costs you would have had to incur if you continued to live at your risk address.

If you normally live in the buildings, the amount we will pay will be based on the buildings’ rentable value.

We will reimburse the additional costs you have to pay for temporary accommodation where:

- the buildings you live in are damaged by an insured event to such an extent that you cannot live in them, and
- you temporarily take accommodation at another address.

We will pay for temporary accommodation for:

There will be no additional premium or rebate during the period of insurance. However, at the end of each period of insurance the renewal premium for the next period of insurance will be calculated on the amount of the amended sum(s) insured at that time.

3. Change of risk address

(Applicable only when you have contents cover)

If you are permanently moving to a new risk address in Australia, we will cover your contents during the period of insurance under the standard terms and conditions of this policy while they are contained in the buildings at your current risk address and in the buildings at your new risk address, for up to 14 days from the date you begin to move your contents.

Our maximum payment for this benefit will be limited to the balance of any sum insured remaining after payment of your claim for the damage to your contents.

10. Guests', visitors' and domestic helpers' property

(Applicable only when you have contents cover)

We will pay up to $5,000 if property belonging to your guests, visitors or domestic helpers is lost or damaged by any insured event when your guests', visitors' or domestic helper's property is kept in the

The maximum amount we will pay under this policy is $10,000,000 (Australian) arising out of any one accident or series of accidents attributable to one source or originating cause. This limit will be reduced by any amount paid under any other buildings or contents policy you have with us providing this type of cover for the same liability, loss, occurrence or incident.

- up to a maximum period of 12 months,

whichever period of time is the lesser.

If you normally live in the buildings, the amount we will pay will be based on the buildings’ rentable value. If you are the landlord, the amount we will pay will be based on the weekly rent payable by your tenants as at the date of damage to the buildings.

The maximum combined total amount we will pay under this benefit and “Removal of debris, professional fees and extra costs” on pages 30 to 31 is 10% of the sum insured on the buildings. Any payment we may make under this benefit will be in addition to any amount we pay on buildings.

Part B – Personal Effects

If you have personal effects cover

(Available only when you have contents cover)

Your current schedule shows if you have selected personal effects cover and whether this relates to unspecified personal effects and/or specified personal effects.

We will insure you against accidental loss or damage to your personal effects anywhere in Australia and for a maximum of 35 days in any one period of insurance elsewhere in the world.

If a claim could be made under “Part A – Other benefits we will provide”, “Temporary removal of contents from your risk address” on pages 33 to 34 or this “Part B – Personal Effects”, we will only pay under one Part. You may choose whether you claim under Part A or Part B.

An excess applies to all claims in respect of unspecified personal effects.

What are specified personal effects

Specified personal effects are those items which you requested us to list separately in the current schedule. In the event of a claim you must be able to provide evidence of the value and ownership of such specified personal effects.

How we will settle your personal effects claim

At our option we will either:

- a. repair or replace your personal effects to the same condition as when they were new; or

We will adjust your claims payment in accordance with the GST provision noted under “Conditions of cover”, “GST Notice” on pages 44 to 45.

If any part of a pair, set or collection is lost or damaged, we will not pay any more than the value of the part which is lost or damaged. No allowance will be made for any reduction in the value of the remaining part or parts of the pair, set or collection.

3. Taking precautions

We will not pay for loss, liability, injury or damage if you do not:

- a. take all reasonable precautions to prevent the loss, liability, injury or damage;
- b. secure your buildings against unauthorised entry whenever your risk address is left unattended by you or any other person;
- c. maintain your buildings in good repair; and
- d. effectively secure tarpaulins on buildings which are undergoing renovation where the area undergoing renovation would otherwise be exposed to the effects of the weather.

4. Security devices and burglar alarms

We will not pay for loss or damage caused by burglary or housebreaking if:

- a. you have not installed additional security devices (for example window locks and detection systems) as specifically required by us within a reasonable time following our request.
- b. any security device installed or declared to be installed is not:
 - i. maintained in an efficient working order; and
 - ii. in operation whenever your risk address is left unattended by you or any other person.

5. Cancellation rights under the policy

- a. You may cancel this policy at any time by telephoning us.
- b. We have the right to cancel this policy where permitted by law. For example, we can cancel:
 - if you have failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, or
 - where you have made a misrepresentation to us during negotiations prior to the issue of this policy, or
 - where you have failed to comply with a provision of your policy, including the term relating to payment of premium, or
 - where you have made a fraudulent claim under your policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time that our policy covers you, or
 - where we agree to accept payment of premium by periodic instalment and at least one instalment remains unpaid in excess of one month from the date on which it was due and payable.
- c. If you or we cancel the policy we may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy and any government taxes or duties we cannot recover.
- d. In the event that you have made a claim under this policy and we have agreed to pay the full sum insured for your property no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium.

6. Non payment of premium by instalments – Right to refuse a claim

Where you pay your premium by instalments, you must ensure they are paid on time because if one instalment has remained unpaid for a period of at least 14 days, we may refuse to pay a claim. We will notify you if an instalment has not been paid.

7. Premium payment by direct debit

You may have chosen to pay the premium for this insurance by direct debit from a financial institution holding your account. If you choose this option, the financial institution may dishonour the direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account. If this occurs, we will charge you for any direct and indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being dishonoured.

8. GST Notice

This policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and our payment to you for claims. It may have an impact on how you determine the amount of insurance you need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if you have any queries about GST and your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in this policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where we agree to pay

When we calculate the amount we will pay you, we will have regard to the items below:

- Where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the sum insured/limit of indemnity or other limits shown in the policy or in the current schedule.

If your sum insured/limit of liability is not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST amount that relates to our settlement of your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled.

- Where we make a payment under this policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, we will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that you would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.
- Where the policy insures business interruption, we will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by your business that is relevant to your claim.

Disclosure – Input tax credit entitlement

If you register, or are registered, for GST you are required to tell us your entitlement to an input tax credit on your premium. If you fail to disclose or understate your entitlement, you may be liable for GST on a claim we may pay. This policy does not cover you for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which you may be liable.

Making a claim

What you must do

We may not pay your claim if you do not act as follows:

1. Do not admit liability

You must not:

a. admit guilt or liability, or make a promise or offer of payment in connection with any claim; or

b. offer or agree to settle any claim;

without our written consent.

We are entitled to take over and conduct the defence of any claim made against you for damages by a third party. We have full discretion in conducting any negotiations, proceedings and the settlement of claims.

If the claim is for legal liability, you may make a written request to us to agree that you are covered in respect of the claim.

2. Prevent further damage

You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent any further loss, damage or liability.

3. Contact the police

Inform the police immediately of any malicious damage, theft, attempted theft, burglary or loss of insured property.

4. Keep evidence of the loss or damage

You must keep evidence of any loss or damage to your insured property. You may not authorise any repairs or replacement unless you are preventing further loss, damage or liability from occurring.

5. Contact us as soon as possible

If there is any loss, liability, injury or damage which is likely to result in a claim, you must give us immediate notice of the full details of any loss, anticipated or alleged liability, injury or damage.

You or your representative must give us full details in the manner we request which will be either:

a. in writing by completing our claim form which will be supplied to you when you contact us; or
b. verbally.

You must also:

- provide us with any original receipts, proof of ownership or quotes we require to settle your claim,
- inform us if your property is insured under any other policy,
- give us immediate notice of the commencement of any legal proceedings against you.

What happens after you make a claim

1. Assist us with your claim

You must assist us with your claim. This means you give us all the information and assistance with your claim which we may reasonably require. If you do not we may not pay your claim or provide cover.

If we have the right to recover any amount payable under this policy from any other person, you must co-operate with us in any action we may take.

2. Proof of value and ownership

When you make a claim for loss or damage to any item insured by this policy we will ask you to provide evidence of value and ownership of the property. Receipts, valuations, photographs and instruction manuals will assist you to prove that you owned the item and prove its value.

3. End of cover following a total loss claim

If we accept a claim and pay an amount which:

- a. is equal to or greater than the total sum insured for any single part of the policy on the insured property; or
- b. is sufficient to pay you for the total loss or destruction of all the insured property under a single part of the policy, cover under that particular part of the policy will end.

4. Payment of unpaid premium following a total loss claim

If we accept your claim and pay you the total sum insured for your property:

- the amount of any unpaid premium for the period of insurance will be deducted from the amount payable to you,
- if we replace or rebuild the property, you must pay us the balance of any unpaid premium or instalments for the period of insurance.

5. Our rights of recovery

We have the right to recover from any person, where permitted by law, the amount of any claim payable to you under this policy and we will have full discretion in the conduct, settlement or defence of any claim in your name. If we recover more than the amount we paid to you on your behalf, we will pay you the balance.

6. GST

We will adjust your claims payment in accordance with the GST provision detailed under “Conditions of cover” “GST Notice” on pages 44 to 45.

Other information

Renewal procedure

Before this policy expires we will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation advising the amount payable to renew this policy. You should carefully check the details contained in your renewal invitation. These details are the terms and conditions that apply to your policy, including but not limited to:

- the names of the people who are insured,
- the address of the property insured,
- specified items and the amount each item is insured for,
- any excess which you must pay towards the cost of a claim, and
- the sums insured.

Prior to sending your renewal invitation we will adjust your sum(s) insured.

It is important that you check the sums insured before renewing each year to satisfy yourself that they continue to represent current full replacement values.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into the policy with us to that which applies when you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace your policy. We set these two duties out below.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into this policy with us for the first time

You will be asked various questions when you first apply for this policy. When you answer these questions, you must:

- give us honest and complete answers,
- tell us everything you know, and
- tell us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace your policy.

When you vary, renew, extend, reinstate or replace the policy your duty is to tell us before the variation, renewal, extension, reinstatement or replacement is made, every matter known to you which:

- you know, or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

What you do not need to tell us for either duty

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk,
- that is of common knowledge,
- that we know or should know as an insurer, or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who do the above two duties apply to?

Everyone who is insured under the policy must comply with the relevant duty.

What happens if you or they do not comply with either duty?

If you or they don't comply with the relevant duty, we may cancel the policy or reduce the amount we pay if you make a claim. If fraud is involved, we may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

General Insurance Code of Practice – providing you with even better service

The General Insurance Code of Practice was developed by the Insurance Council of Australia to further raise standards of practice and service across the insurance industry.

We keenly support the standards set out in the Code. You can obtain more information on the Code of Practice and how it assists you by contacting us. Contact details are provided on the back cover of this policy.

Dispute resolution process – helping you solve any problems

Complaints or disputes are not an everyday occurrence at Allianz. We strive to do things the right way and keep our customers happy.

Sometimes though, complaints or disputes do occur and when this happens, our objective is to resolve any disagreement as amicably and as quickly as possible. We believe the best way to achieve this is to provide you with an opportunity for an unbiased review of the issue.

Here's what to do if a complaint or dispute arises

Regardless of whether the complaint or dispute involves our staff, an agent, loss adjuster, assessor, investigator or the service we provide, simply contact 13 2664; speak to one of our call centre operators and provide them with the details of the issue concerning you. They will attempt to resolve the complaint or dispute, if they are unable to do so they will log it and refer it to the appropriate business unit for resolution.

Within our organisation we have established a complaints and disputes resolution process. This is a free service. It is a system designed to log, track, escalate and monitor complaints received from clients and customers about our services and products. A staff member involved in the complaints and disputes resolution process will write to you within 15 working days advising the outcome of the review and reasons for their decision. We do not consider a complaint or dispute to be resolved until a proposed resolution or solution has been communicated to you and you have accepted the resolution or solution.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of this process

If we are unable to resolve the complaint or dispute we will offer you the option of referring the matter to the insurance industry's external independent complaints scheme subject to eligibility.

The scheme will only review complaints or disputes if they have gone through our internal complaints and disputes resolution process.

Agency arrangements and agent's fee

If your policy has been issued through our agent, or a broker who is acting under a binder agreement with us, then they are acting as our agent and not as your agent.

If your policy has been issued by a broker, other than a broker acting under a binder arrangement with us, then the broker is acting as your agent.

When this policy has been arranged through an intermediary a commission is payable by us to them for arranging the insurance.

Phoning for assistance

If you need to clarify any of the information contained in this policy wording or you have any other queries regarding your insurance policy, please use the contact details on the back cover.

Hints for home security

- a. Make a list of all your valuables and record their make, model and serial number. Many stolen items are recovered by the police, but cannot be positively identified by the owners.
- b. It is advisable to mark and photograph your television set, stereo equipment, computers and other valuables so that you can easily identify them. Thieves tend to avoid marked items, which are traceable.

Your Neighbourhood Watch organisation or your local police are able to provide you with guidance and assistance in this regard.

- c. Whenever you leave your home make sure all doors and windows are securely locked and all alarms or detection devices are activated.
Do not forget the garage or shed.
- d. If you are going out for the evening, leave a light switched on.
- e. If you are going on holidays, do not forget to:
 - stop the newspaper, milk and any other deliveries. Make the arrangements in person or by letter. Do not leave notes for others to read,
 - ask a trusted neighbour or friend to keep an eye on your home for you,
 - take jewellery and other valuable items to your bank for safe keeping,

- lock away garden tools, ladders and anything else which could help a house-breaker,
- arrange to have your letterbox cleared frequently and for a neighbour or friend to mow your front lawn. An overflowing letterbox and long grass are sure signs that you are away, and
- leave blinds and curtains partly open to give the house a lived in appearance.
